

We are seeking Maintenance Technician to work at our Longmont, CO facility.

The Maintenance Technician is responsible for maintaining, troubleshooting, and repairing production machinery in a 24/7 environment.

JOB DUTIES:

- Preventive repair and maintenance on a wide variety of manufacturing equipment
- Trouble-shooting and rebuilding of various production machines
- Fabrication of steel and aluminum structures
- Equipment inspections and cleaning
- Resolve both electrical and mechanical problems on a variety of large format printers.
- Ensure optimum level of safety on serviced equipment.
- Rely on extensive experience and judgment to plan and accomplish daily tasks.
- Multi-task in a fast-paced and diverse environment.
- Other duties and special projects as assigned
- Work directly with the Senior Director of OOH Operations on special projects as needed.

EDUCATION AND FORMAL TRAINING:

- 5-years minimum experience in manufacturing environment
- Associate's degree in related field, or equivalent experience

KNOWLEDGE, SKILLS, AND ABILITY:

- Solid knowledge of electrical systems (relay logic, AC & DC control circuits, etc.)
- Strong knowledge of pneumatic, mechanical and hydraulic systems
- PLC experience a plus
- Skills in welding, machining, brazing, soldering desired
- Experience with MS Office (Word, Excel, Outlook)
- Large format printing experience an absolute plus
- Must be available for weekend work (regular shift includes every other weekend)